»»»»» A MONTHLY UPDATE FOR FRIENDS AND CLIENTS OF DOCTORS ACCESS

MAY 2007

New Online Live Support

Tired of leaving messages and waiting for a callback? Those days are gone! Reach Live Support at www.doctorsaccess.com/help and click on the “Live Support” button. You will be directed to a live Doctors Access Support Representative without the hassle of calling in and hoping to reach a live person v. leaving a message. Please begin enjoying instant access to your Doctors

Access Support Team. With our latest version of Doctors Access you can also have a direct connection to Live Support via the new “HELP” links strategically located throughout the system.

NPI Update Now

Still not sure where you stand regarding the National Provider Identifier? Please visit: <http://www.cms.hhs.gov/NationalProidentStand>. Contact Doctors Access at www.doctorsaccess.com help to download your latest version now which will allow your electronic and paper claims to include the NPI module.

Claim Rejection Reminder

As a reminder, when you receive any type of rejection from a payer, please contact the payer or clearinghouse directly to obtain additional information on your claim rejection. In order for us to provide optimal and efficient response times within our Support Department, we ask that you please contact the payer first for resolution. The following Medicare article provides some of the common errors to watch out for when submitting your claims: <http://www.cms.hhs.gov/MLNMattersArticles/downloads/SE0712.pdf>.

Below is a list of contact numbers when resolving claim rejections:

- Medicare Claims Helpdesk (866) 520-4022
- WebMD/Emdeon Helpdesk (800) 845-6592
- BCBS of TN/NC Helpdesk (423) 755-5717

For additional contact information on claim rejections, please contact your local payer representative or use the information located on the back side of the patient’s insurance card.
